Notes and thoughts from Becky

Therefore the chief priests and the Pharisees convened a council . . . (John 11:47 NASB)

Council = theSanhedrin, the great council at Jerusalem, consisting of the seventy one members: scribes, elders, prominent members of the high priestly families, the high priest, and the president of the assembly. The most important causes were brought before this tribunal, inasmuch as the Roman rulers of Judaea had left to it the power of trying such cases, and also of pronouncing sentence of death, with the limitation that a capital sentence pronounced by the Sanhedrin was not valid unless it was confirmed by the Roman procurator.
